ORDER OF DETENTION PENDING TRIAL

In accordance with the Bail Reform Act, 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f), the Government moved for detention in this case. Defendant waived his right to a detention hearing. That waiver is entered in the record as Dkt. No.67. I conclude that the following facts are established by a preponderance of the evidence and require the detention of the defendant pending trial in this case.

- [ ] (3) A period of not more than five years has elapsed since the (date of conviction) (release of the defendant from imprisonment) for the offense described in finding 1.

Written Statement of Reasons for Detention

I find that the accusations in the indictment and the pretrial services report establish by a preponderance of the evidence that no condition or combination of conditions will reasonably assure the appearance of the defendant as required.

I conclude that the following factors specified in 18 U.S.C. § 3142(g) are present and are to be taken into account:

1. Defendant is a citizen of El Salvador. He has no legal status in the United States. He was previously removed from the United States and Immigration and Customs Enforcement records reflect that he has an outstanding warrant of removal pending.
2. Defendant is charged with conspiracy to transport stolen merchandise in violation of 18 U.S.C. § 371, conspiracy to launder funds in violation of 18 U.S.C. § 1956, 5 counts of transporting stolen merchandise in violation of 18 U.S.C. §§ 2314 and 2, and 22 counts of structuring transactions to evade reporting requirements in violation of 31 U.S.C. § 5324. He faces a potential penalty of up to ten years in prison.
3. Defendant's criminal history includes three theft convictions and illegal reentry into the United States. He has used numerous aliases.
4. There is no condition or combination of conditions of release which would assure the appearance of the defendant in court. Detention is ordered.

Directions Regarding Detention

It is therefore ORDERED that the defendant is committed to the custody of the Attorney General or his designated representative for confinement in a corrections facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal. The defendant shall be afforded a reasonable opportunity for private consultation with defense counsel. On order of a court of the United States or on request of an attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility shall deliver the defendant to the United States Marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with all court proceedings.
